True friendships are rare, so rare that I am glad to say that I had one true friend in high school. In the two years that I have known you we both have grown, and changed, and yet through all the changes, we have been able to remain friends. I guess that's what a true friend is. I would have liked to say that the best person you could give me don't know why this turned out so good. When we do now anyway, right? Your friend, Steve Levine

Jeff. This is a story that starts a long time ago in a plane many dimensions from our own. It is long story with many emotional twists and upheavals. So far, as it goes, it was absolutely nothing to do with you or me but it makes for a novel opening. Our humble story begins on a fine spring matinee class two years ago. You were then known a Magella Gorilla. Boy things sure have come along now you play Basket Ball, ~~and~~ and through many hours of research we discovered that Schneider means "help the cows are dying". As I write this I realize that I haven't really said much so I'll just continue writing the future in which you are a world famous and health producer. In your immortal words I will conclude this ~~is~~ a piece of literature "Steven Spielberg is a thief + a plagiarist". But seriously, sometimes I wonder where we our friendships stand, in terms of closeness. Sure we really stand, we do things, but I wonder...

Before I room with you, let me know.
I know I'm not always easy to talk to, but
try. I will. UCL Fight Fight Fight

Seasons come and seasons go and with the togetherness we share we shall continue to grow

As time goes on we will find that the days of old have helped us to grow, molded us, so that in the future we are better equipped to deal with the problems that might come our way.

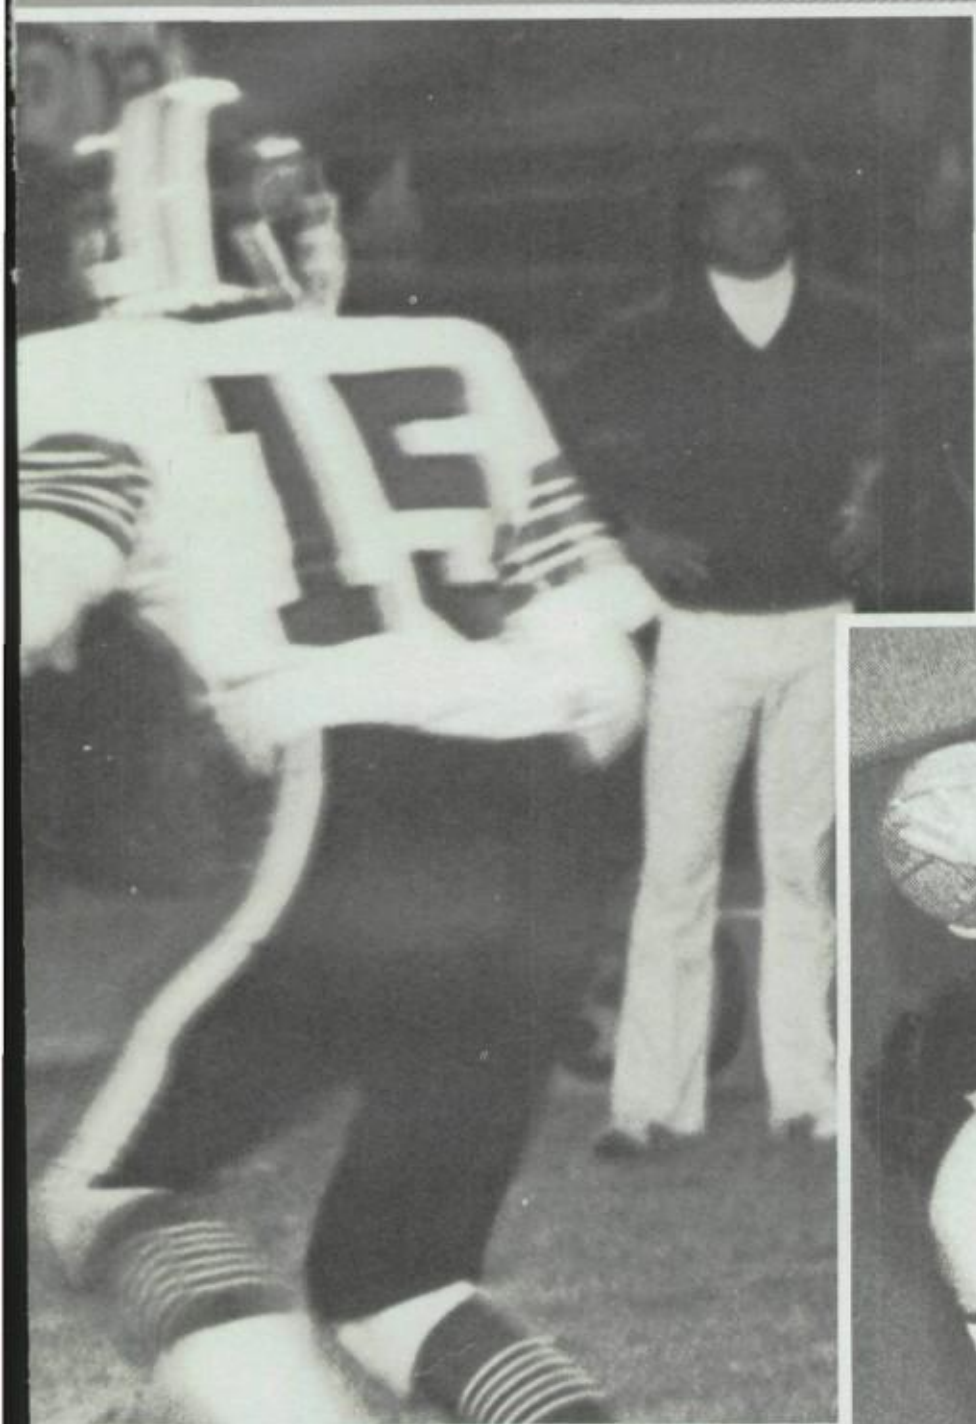

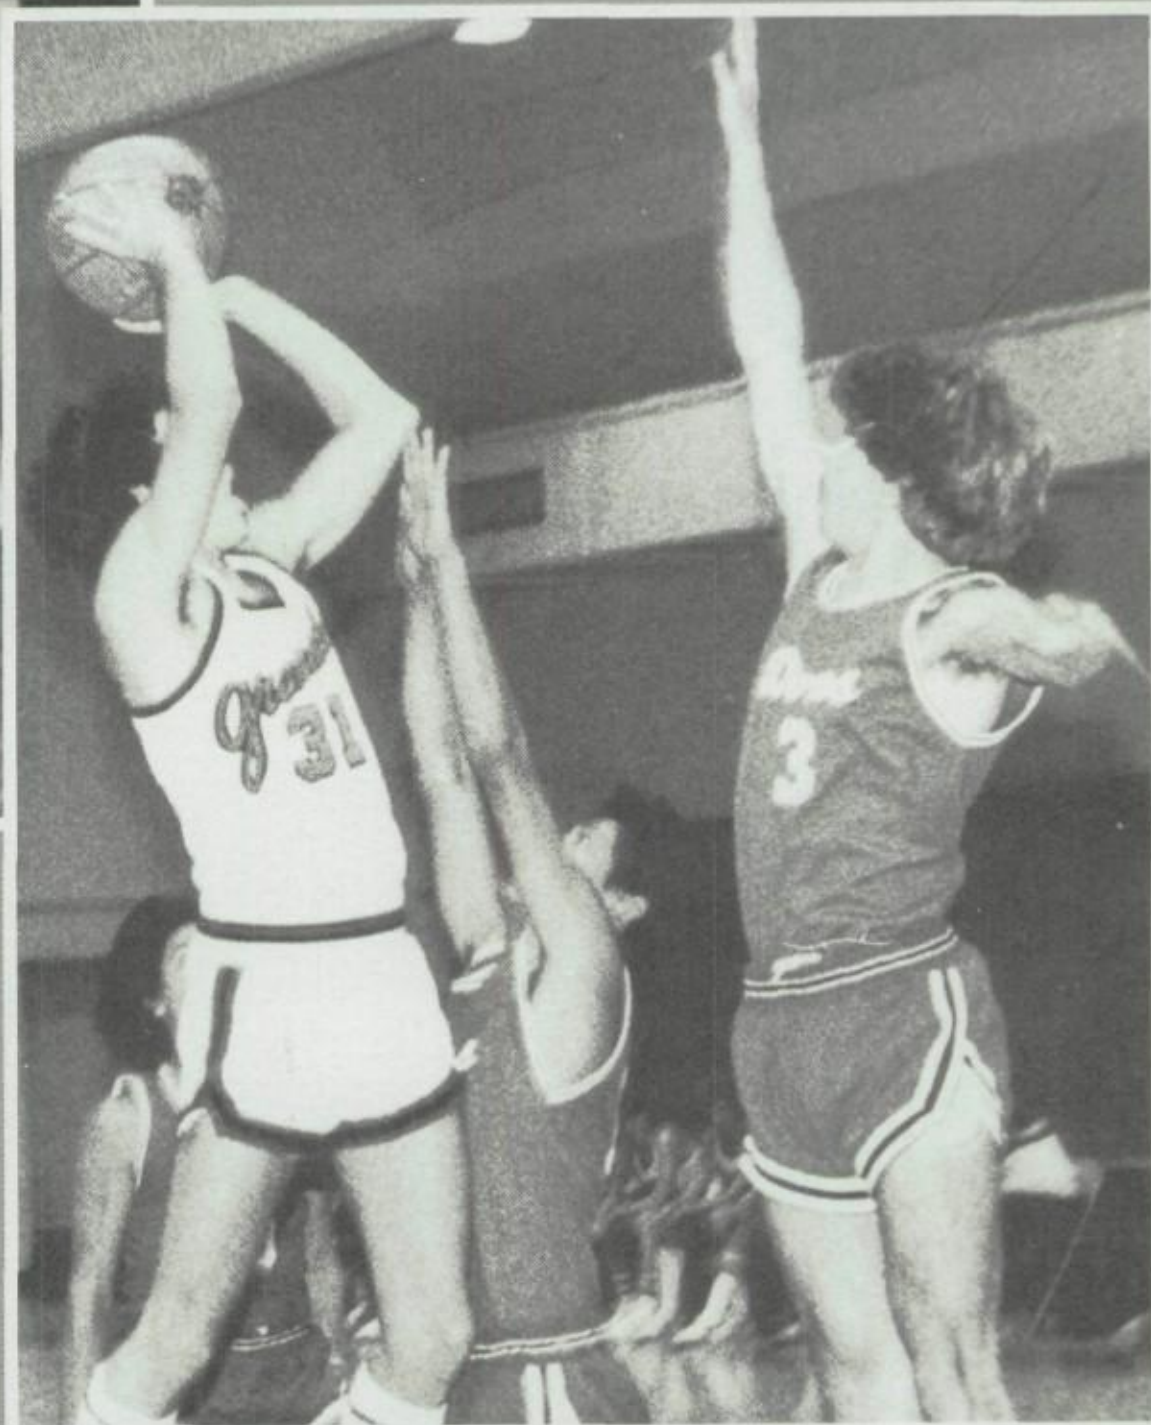

These are the good old days.

Yesterdays remind us of a time when sports events were a major part of our lives. A time when we could show our support and spirit of the many outstanding teams we cheered on to victories.

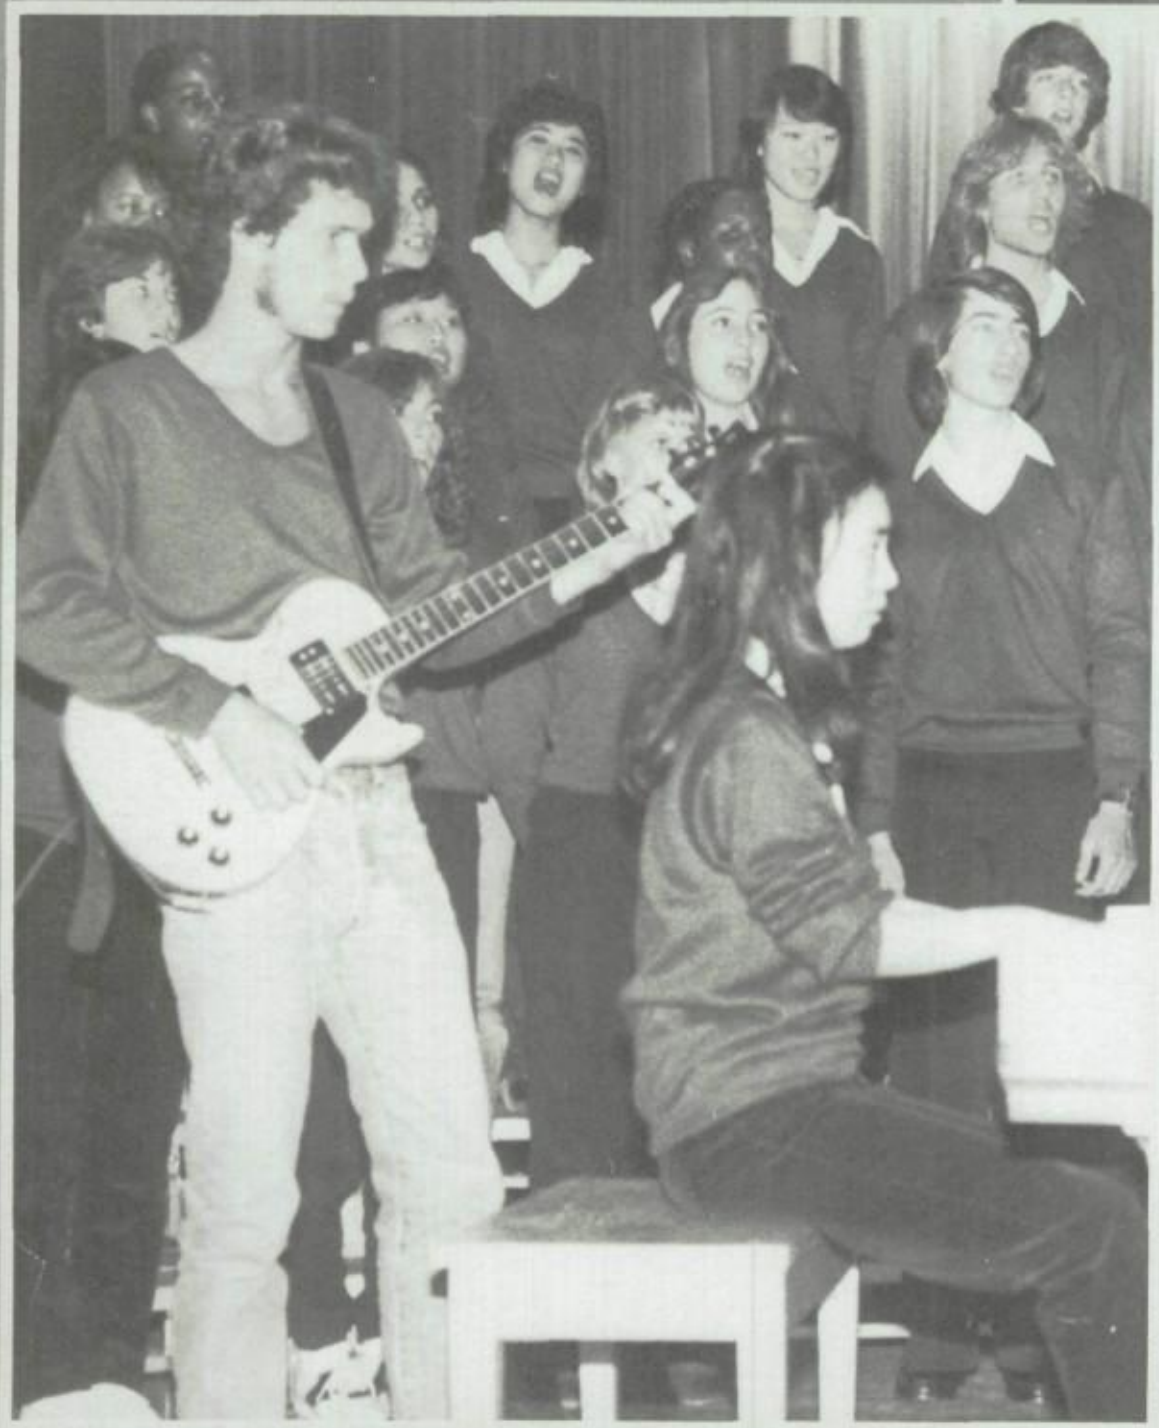

Looking back on memories shared by all of valuable times spent together showing school spirit and scot pride we realize what school was meant to be.

Activities

Fall Pep Assembly

G.H. Spirit Sparks a New Sports Year

Granada Hills High School spirit soared at the annual Fall pep assembly, held on October 8. The purpose of this assembly was to start off the oncoming sports and activities with great enthusiasm. An outstanding performance by our city champion band and drill team got the assembly well underway.

After the introduction of Student Council, all Fall sports teams were announced to the enthusiastic crowd. The cheerleaders, class along with Bee and varsity squads kept the rally flowing with various dance routines and cheers.

1. Captains Ryan "Boo-Boo" Vickers (86), Tony Catanese (79), and Steve Haddad (15) announce our outstanding football team. 2. Varsity cheerleaders execute an awesome ripple. 3. Sophomore class cheerleaders give an exciting show for their first appearance. 4. Class mascots, Ziggy and Smurf, add to the Scot spirit of the rally. 5. Highlander dancers perform the traditional "Tunes of Glory" with perfection.

Spirit Week

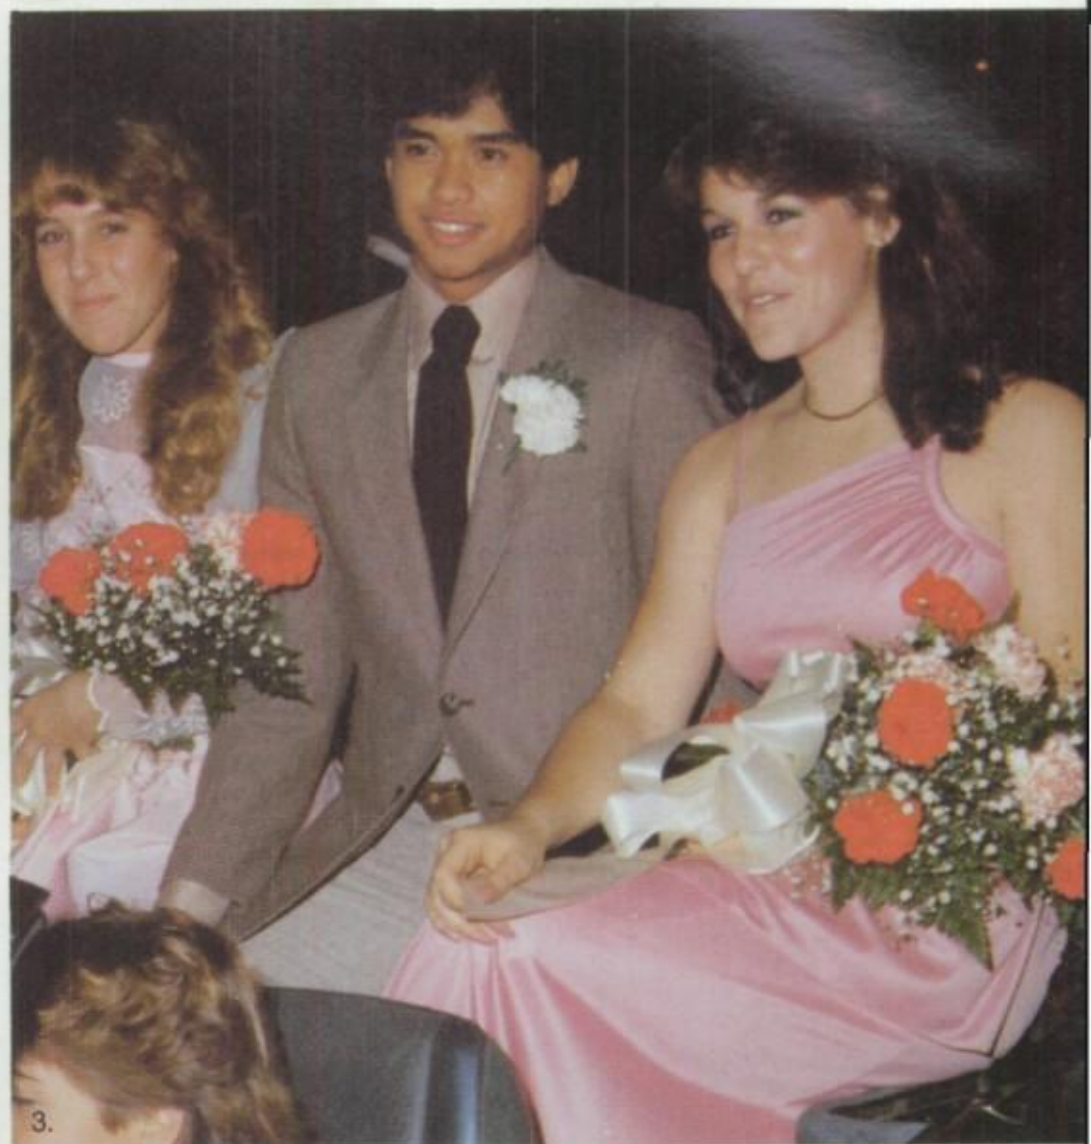

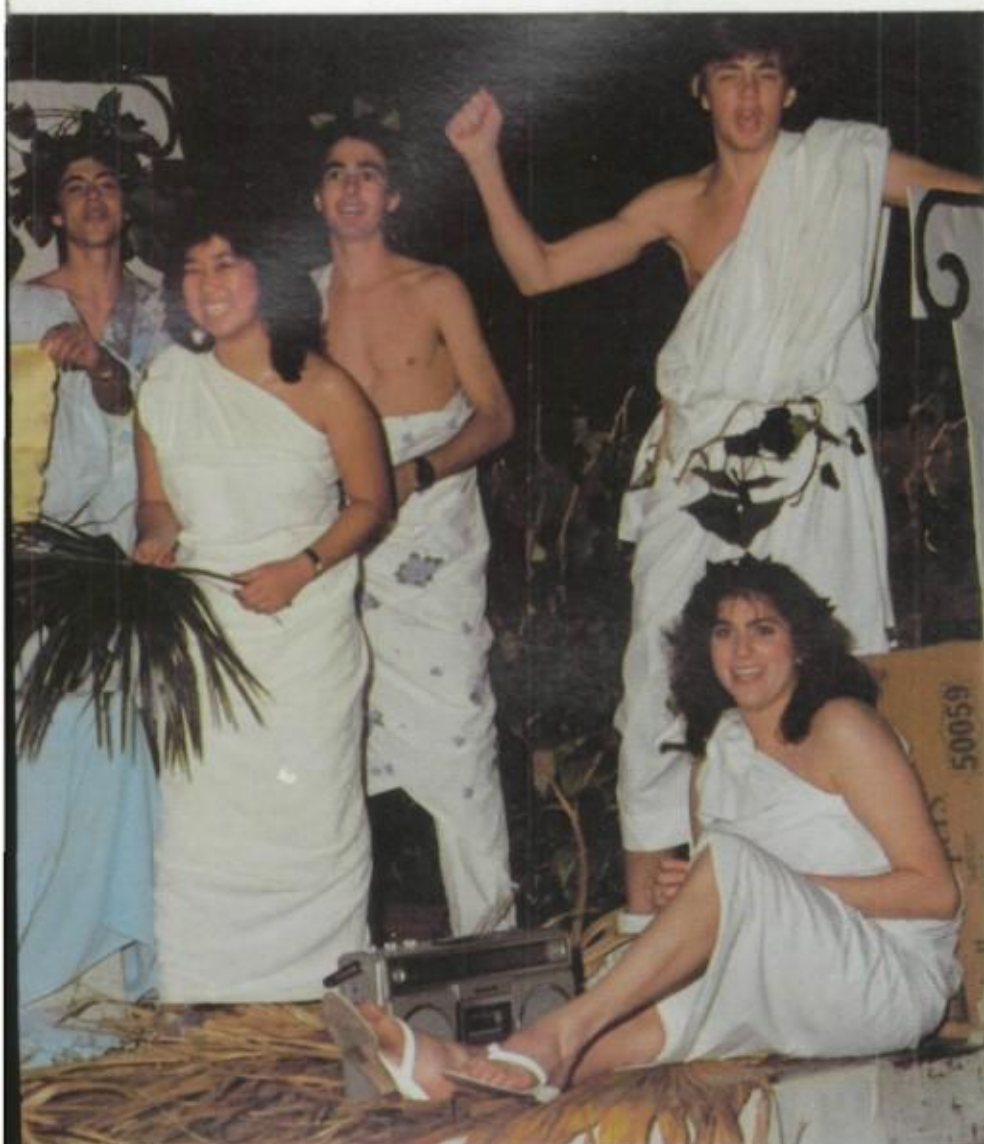

Varied Activities Highlight Week

The week running from December 13-17 was full of fun as students showed enthusiasm for their school by participating in spirit week. College shirt day began the week followed by sports day, 50's day, pajama day, and of course spirit day. Students dressed up in the mode of the days and participated in games and activities at lunch. It was a very successful week.

what a guy.

Homecoming

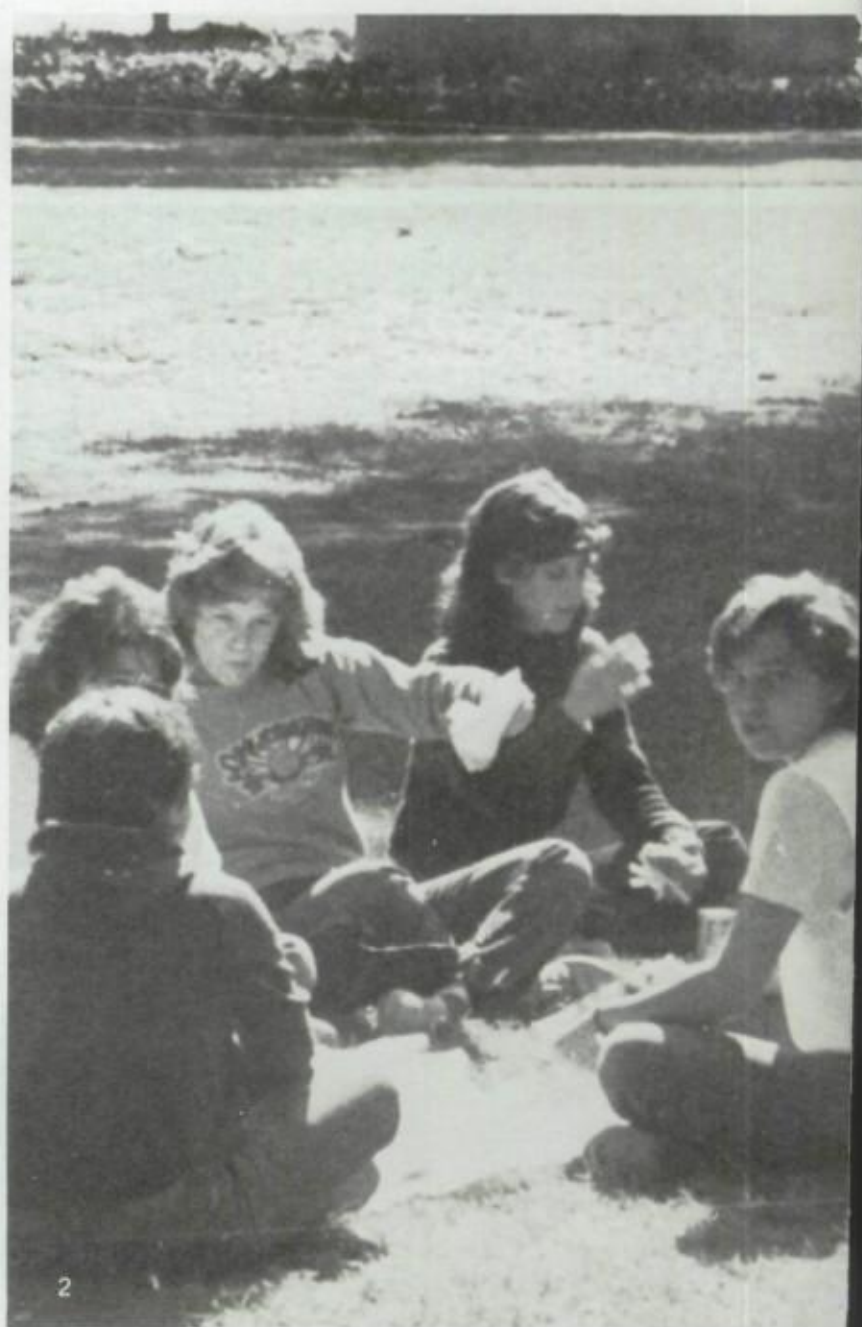

Granada Crowns New Royal Couple

This year's Homecoming proved to be an exciting evening for all that attended. The traditional parade started off the festivities with a bang. The Senior class float captured first place with the theme of "Seniors go Greek".

The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the 1982 Homecoming Court. Lisa Dickerson and Fred Outlaw reigned over the evening as Queen and King. Alex Tenazes was prince, and Thonet Yapp, Diane Crowley, Beverly Lux and Kim Jaffe made up the rest of the court as princesses.

The Granada Hills Highlanders became the victors of an exciting Homecoming battle against El Camino. The final score was 8-7.

1.) An elated Lisa Dickerson is crowned as 1982 Homecoming Queen. 2.) Super Seniors ride in their "Seniors go Greek" float which captured first place. 3.) Kim Jaffe, Alex Tenazes, and Bev Lux and Bev Lux, Homecoming princesses and prince ride in their float as the crowd cheers them on. 4.) Homecoming princesses Diane Crowley and Thonet Yapp gaze at the roaring crowd. 5.) Lisa Dikerson and Fred Outlaw reign over the exciting evening as Homecoming Queen and King.

Senior Picnic

Odessions - The Number One Class!

Northridge Park was invaded by the wild and crazy class of '83 for the annual senior picnic. The Odession feast included submarine sandwiches, chips, salads, ice cream, and plenty of cold drinks. The fun filled day included pyramid building, baseball games, relay races, and lots of smiles and laughter. Because of the great senior officers, the day turned out to be a great success.

1.) Members of Student Council demonstrate how to play the game. 2.) Seniors enjoy a leisurely lunch. 3.) Faster, faster! 4.) Seniors battle it out in the leap frog race. 5.) Odessions anxiously wait for the sack race to begin.

Homecoming Dance

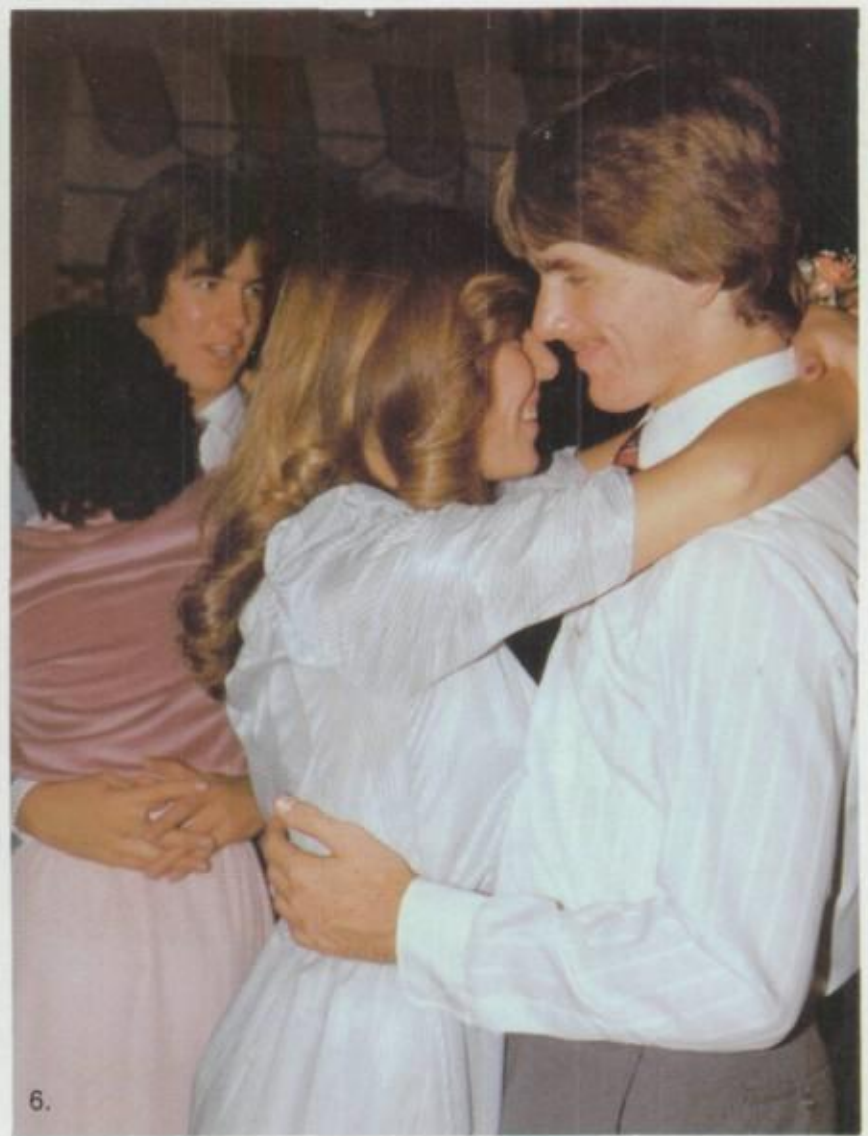

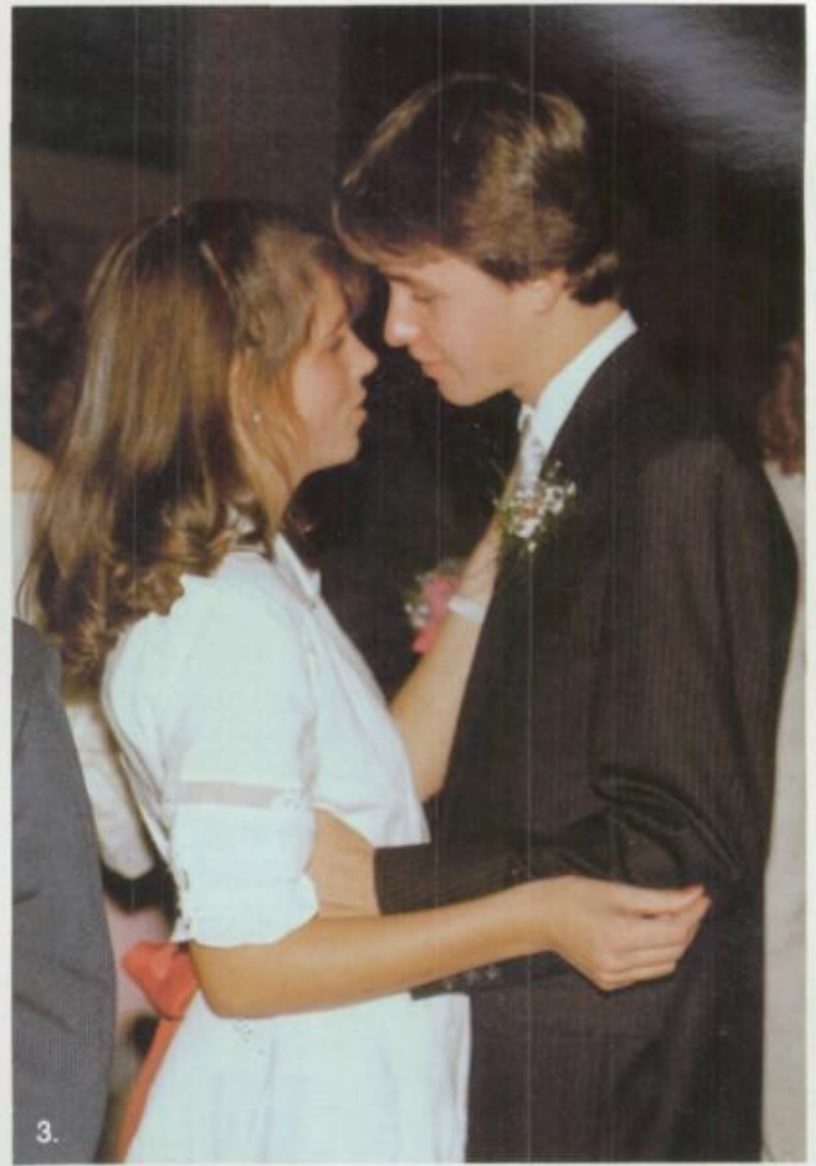

Couples Dance to The 50's Beat

The theme of the 1982 Homecoming Dance was a Fifties Soda Shop. It was held on November 12 in Highlander Hall from 8 to 11.

Couples danced the night away to various types of music played by a disc jockey.

Punch and cake was provided for the weary dancers. Due to the active participation of the student body the evening proved to be a success.

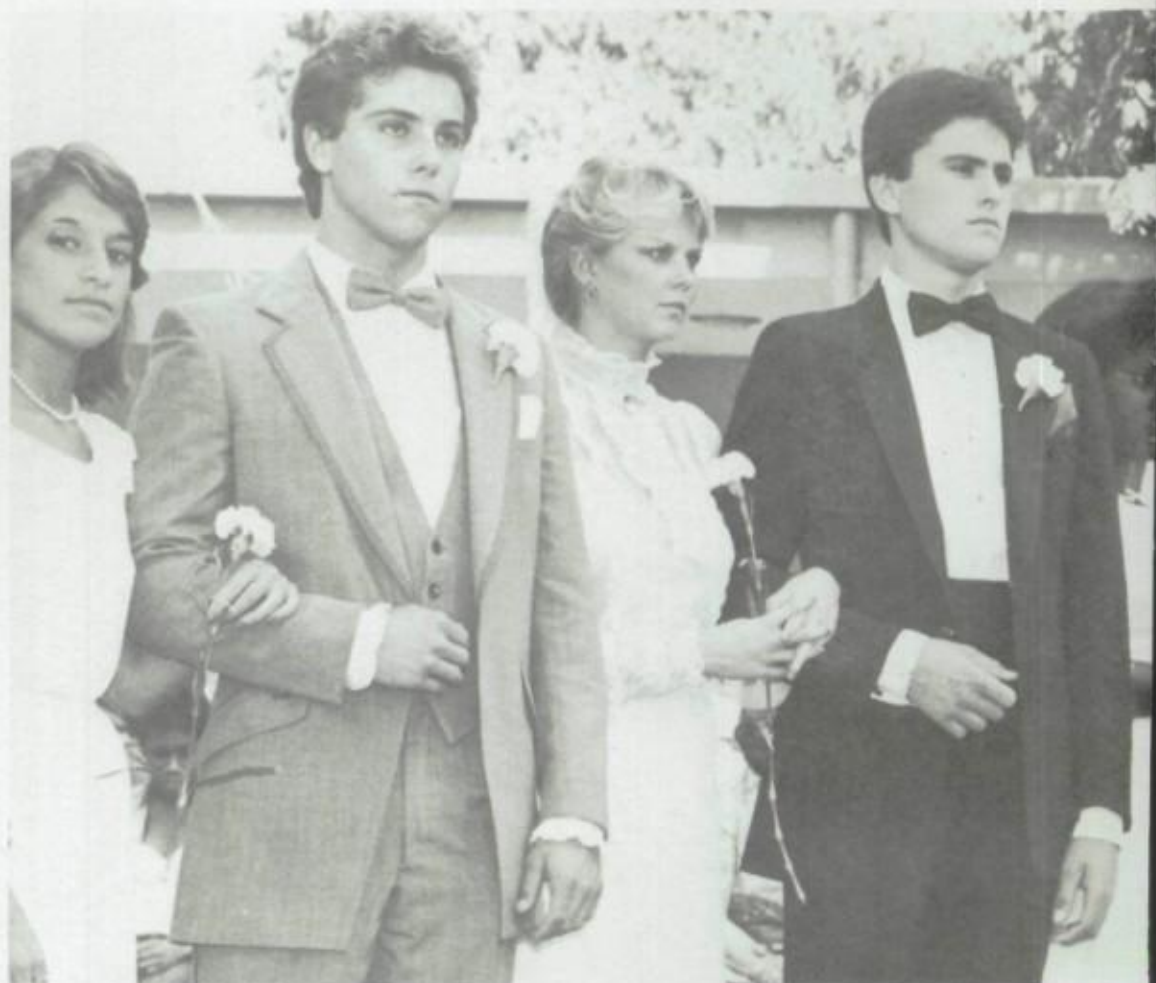

Marriage and Family

Highlanders Get Hitched

The Marriage and Family class gives students an idea of what the married life is really like. This class tries to simulate some of the problems faced by most couples in order to prepare them for the future. The main event in the class is the wedding it self, which was performed by a local Rabbi. Other lessons in Marriage and Family are budgeting, family planning, and difficulties in raising a child. Mrs. Duncan teaches the class and she feels that it has proven to be a valuable experience for every student that takes it.

Play Production

'Miser' Lights Up Highlander Stage

"The Miser" was the Play Production Class's first theatrical endeavor last fall. The play takes place in Paris, the year 1668. The plot is centered around Harpagon, a stingy man who wants his children to marry wealthy spouses instead of those of their choice. David Searcy led the cast, portraying the miserly father, Harpagon. The strong supporting cast consisted of Jennifer Klein as Elise, the daughter, Gary Landis as the son, Cleante, Ron Armstrong as Valere, and Linda Coler as Mariane. The student director was Danielle Brown and the stage managers were Scott Mingus and John Wallingford.

Pep Rallies

Weekly Rallies Raise Spirit

Pep rallies were held this fall on Fridays to support our football team's winning season. Crowds gathered at lunch time to watch cheerleaders, yell leaders, drill team, highland dancers, and band promote school spirit.

1.) Senior class cheerleaders perform in front of an enthusiastic crowd. 2.) Highland dancers do the traditional highland fling. 3.) Fall Bee cheerleaders in action. 4.) Varsity cheerleaders strike a pose at the end of a song routine. 5.) Juniors lead a cheer.

Pops Concert

Choir Displays Musical Talent

The Granada Hills High School Choir proved to be very versatile this year in their performance of the traditional pops concert on November 2. Led by Jean Chamberlain the performance began with "America the Beautiful." Other songs which followed were, "One Voice" and "It Takes a Whole Lot of Feeling."

Many solos were performed including Jannie Baker, Nancy Greenwald, Suzanne Sawyer, Kevin Stage, Gail Choi, and Becky Mars. On guitar was Boyd Foller and Chris Conte, who composed and performed a special song. Pianists were Doris Chen and Nancy Greenwald.

A special chorus from the choir sang "Yankee Doodle," "Born Free," and "Ain't Got Time to Die." Because of the Choir's exceptional talent the concert was a great success.

Black History Assembly

Students Entertain Audience

A Black History Assembly was held March 16, 1983 in Highlander Hall. Granada students were the main entertainers. Poems were read by Dayna Nassar, Traci Williams, Rhonda Wilson, and Rene Lebman. Marc Epps and John Wall sang "Survival" and the choir sang their rendition of "Just a Closer Walk With Thee". Two filmstrips were also shown. All who attended enjoyed this informative assembly.

1. Two Granada students entertain the audience with a song. 2. The choir, conducted by Jean Chamberlain, gives their version of "Just A Closer Walk With Thee."

Odessions Prove Their Superiority

The girls here at Granada Hills always look forward to showing off their athletic abilities in the exciting game of Powder Puff football. This year, girls from all over Granada shed their mini skirts and blouses and suited up in flag football gear on January 11, 1983.

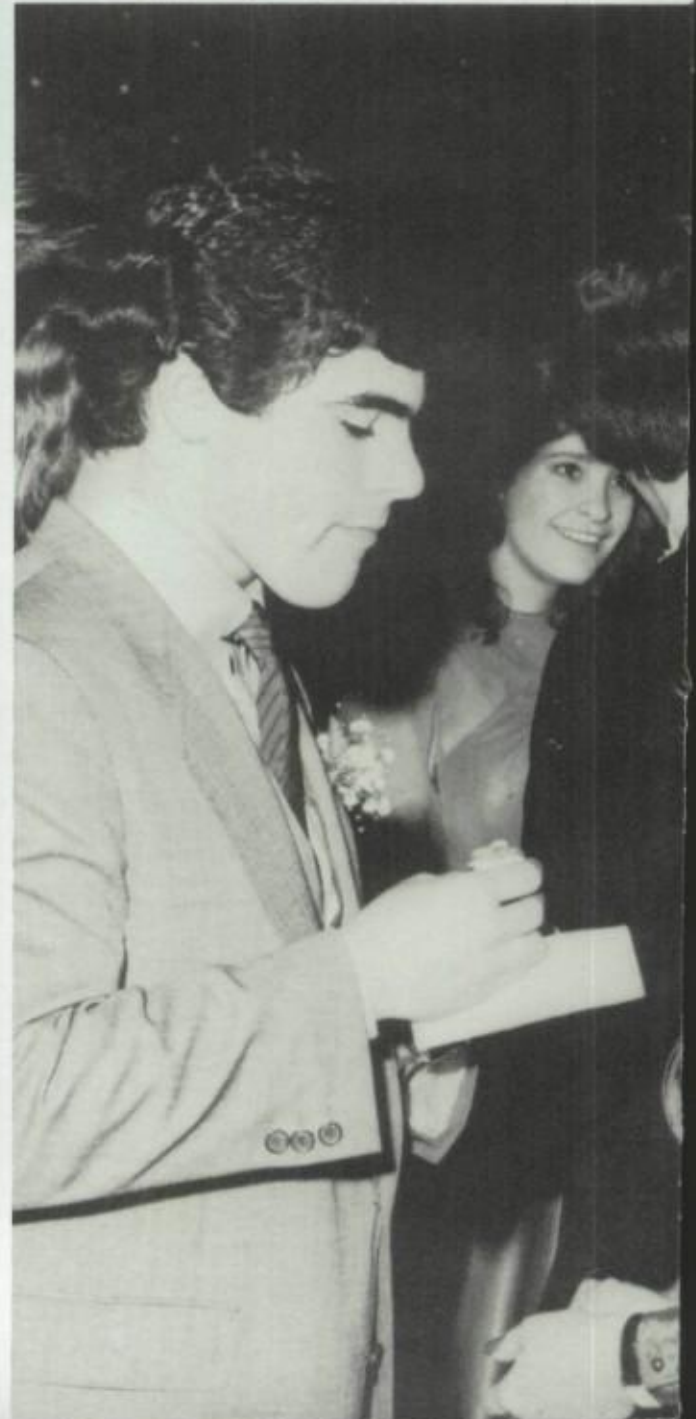

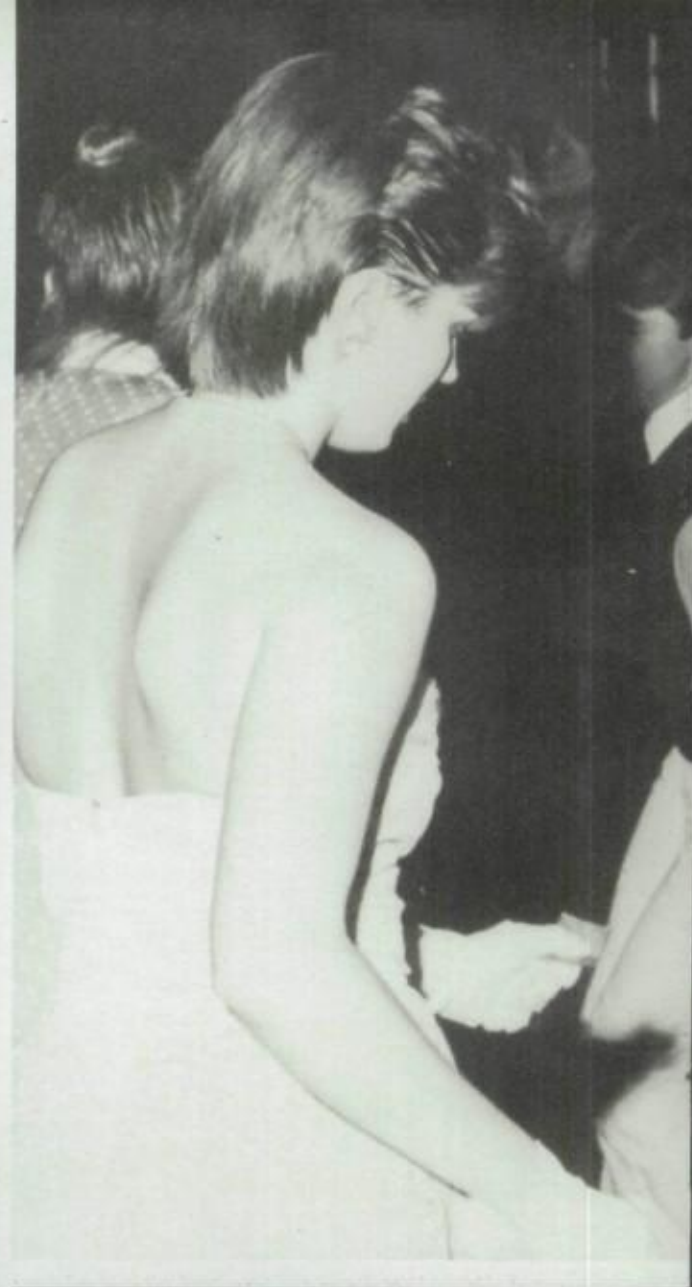

The girls prepared for this fun event for two long, hard weeks under the guidance of their coaches. Passing on their strong football knowledge to the seniors were Les Reardanz, Tony Catanese, and Boo-Boo Vickers. Leading the combined juniors and sophomores were Mike Fine, Vinnie Cravens, and Moe Freeman.

The seniors, returning champions from their sophomore year, proved to be the more together and powerful of the two teams. The final score was 14-0.

1.) Senior Jodi Dubinsky pulls the flag on junior Andrea Gray. 2.) Beth Troupe strives for the tag. 3.) A defensive play in action. 4.) Odessions quarterback, Barbara Jordan, stays on guard. 5.) Juniors make their break through the front line.

Winter Vice Dance

Sweethearts Enjoy Funfilled Evening

This years winter vice-versa was held on February 5, 1973. Under the theme of "Valentines Day" couples danced the night away to the music of a fantastic Disc Jockey.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the 1983 vice court. Elyane Harney and Troy Henderson reigned over the dance as Queen and King. For the seniors princesses were Kecia Heineman and Nancy Greenwald, and Les Reardanz and Sammy Spear were princes.

1. Queen Elyane Harney dances with prince Sammy Spear. 2. Couples dance the night away. 3. Couples search the wall to find their personalized hearts. 4. Off the dance floor couples get a chance to talk and have some refreshments. 5. Scott Grossfield and Anita Casano have some punch after a dance.

Band Competition

Highlanders Take First

The Highlander Marching Band and Bonnie Lassie Drill Team had a very rewarding season this year. They placed as first place champions in the city's 3A division finals. The highlanders also did well all throughout the season placing sweepstakes in the Pierce College competition as well as at North Hollywood High. The Band and Drill Team also placed first at the city final preliminaries.

1. Colorguard captains Andrea Gold, Marianne Greenbaum, Highland Dancer captain Thonet Yapp, Drum Major Shawn Echols, assistant drum major Peter Tomita, lead the band and drill team on to victory. 2. Colorguard and Drill Team pose gracefully during a routine at the city finals. 3. Highland dancer, Gail Graham, dances to "Tunes of Glory" to end the Highlander show. 4. Percussionists Geronimo Neri, Caroline Sakuri, and Robert Carvada prove to be the city's best playing "Merlin the Magician". 5. Acceptance of the division 3A city championship trophy.

Spring Pops Concert

Choirs Talent Captivates Audience

The spring pops concert was held March 22, 1983 in Highlander Hall. The choir performed "They're Playing Our Song", directed by the student teacher Miss La Franci, and "Send In The Clowns". The duet "Just You And I" was sung by Christopher Conte and Suzanne Sawyers. The William Hampton Singers performed "Comedy Tonight", a singing and dancing song. Then, like the end of every concert, the alumni came up and joined the choir in a circle to sing the choir's signature "Let There Be Peace".

1. The choir provides backup music for a guest singer.
2. Nancy Greenwald and Chris Conte perform a duet.
3. The choir singing "Send In The Clowns". 4. Mrs. Chamberlain conducts the choir. 5. Members of the choir perform an amusing number.

Alumni Baseball

Alumni Tie Granada's Team

The ninth annual alumni baseball game was held February 19 on the Granada baseball field. After numerous score changes the alumni tied the Highlander team 8 to 8. The alumni consisted of four pro players; Doug Baker of the Detroit Tigers, Jack Mutz of the San Diego Padres, Gil Kubski of the Cincinnati Reds, and Mike Digacomo of the Italian Olympic team. Other alumni players included Paul Shepard, Carlos Fuentes, and Tim Collins.

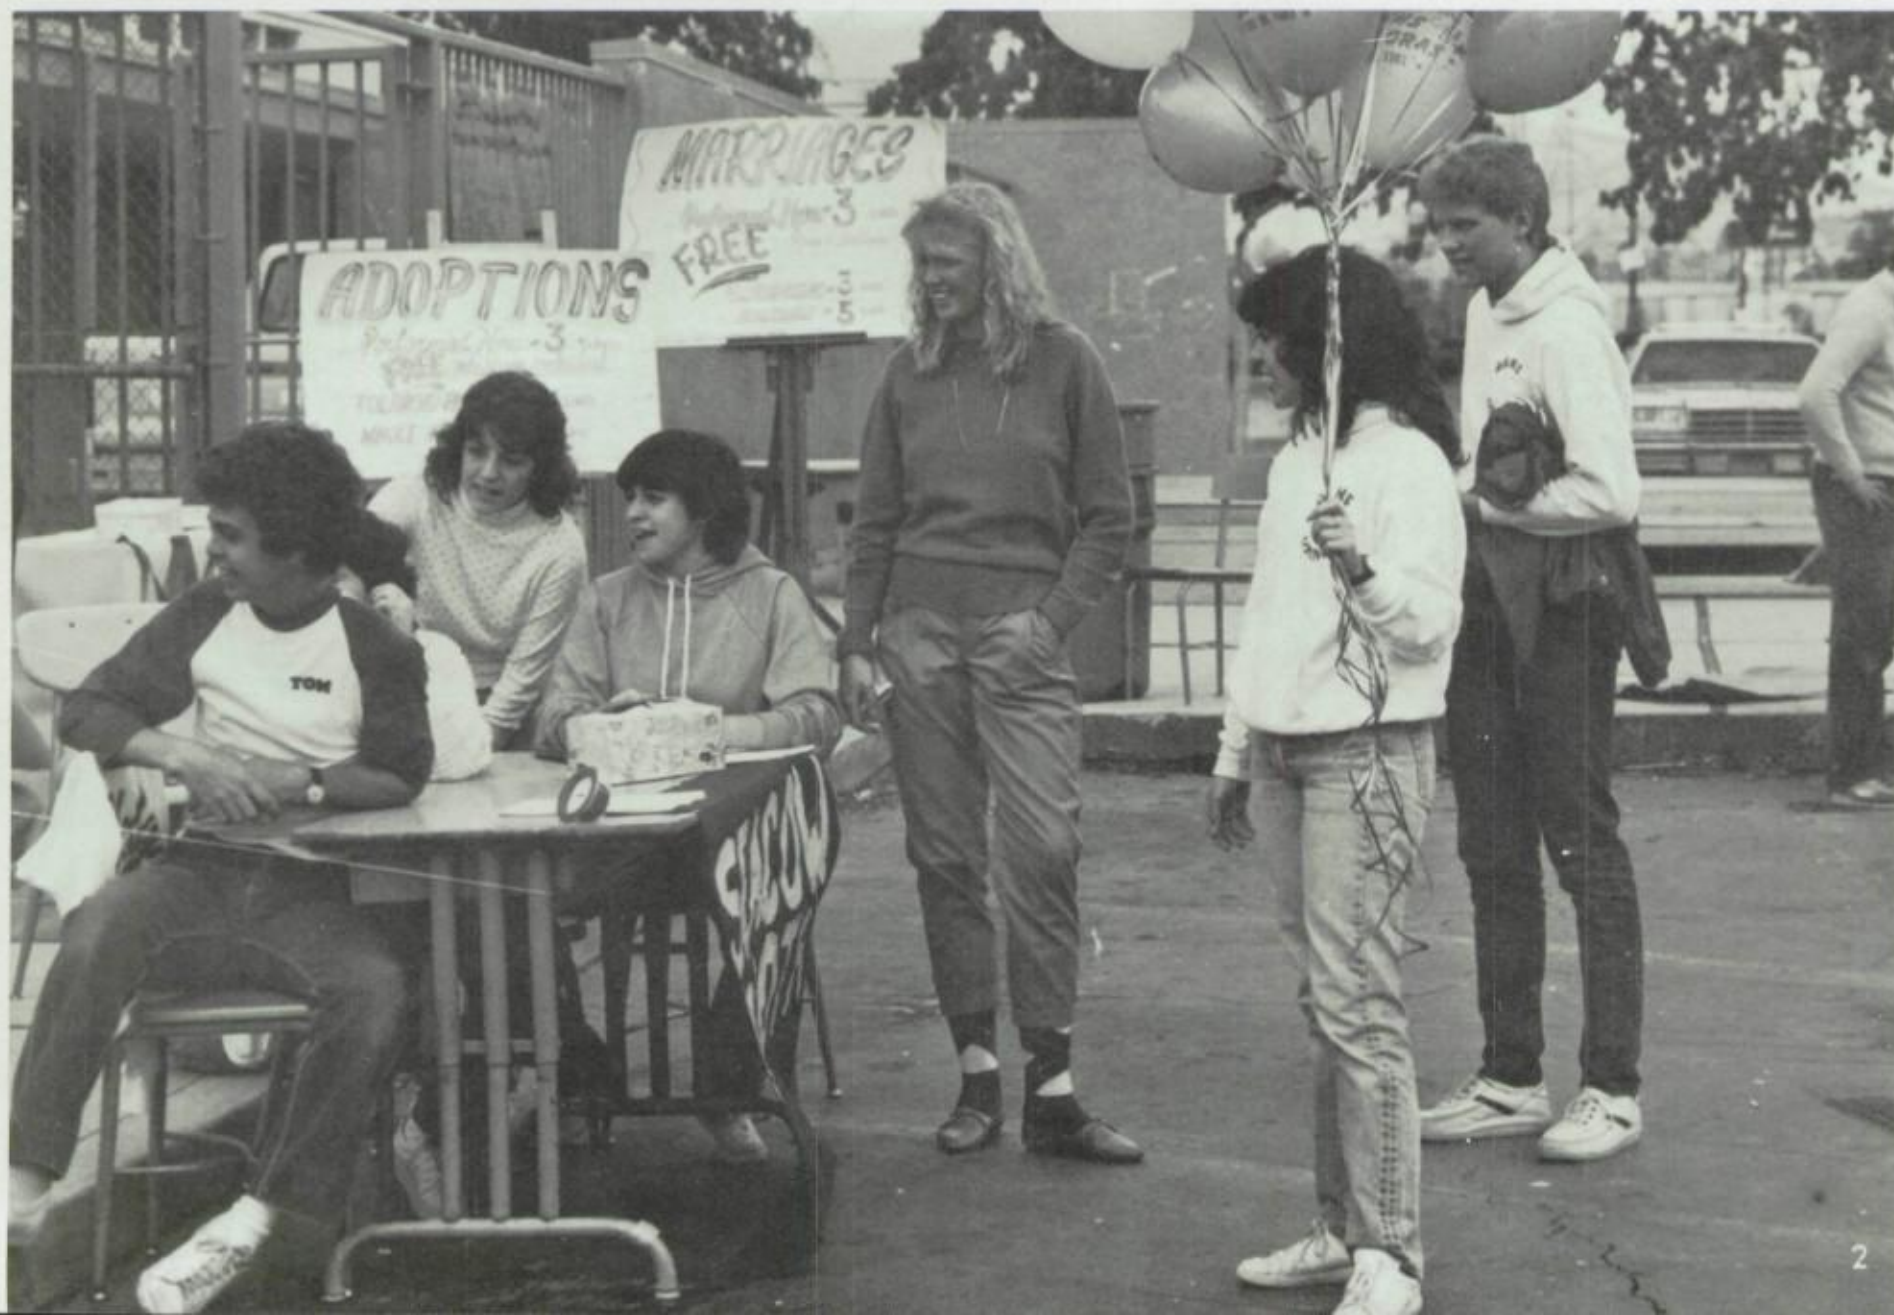

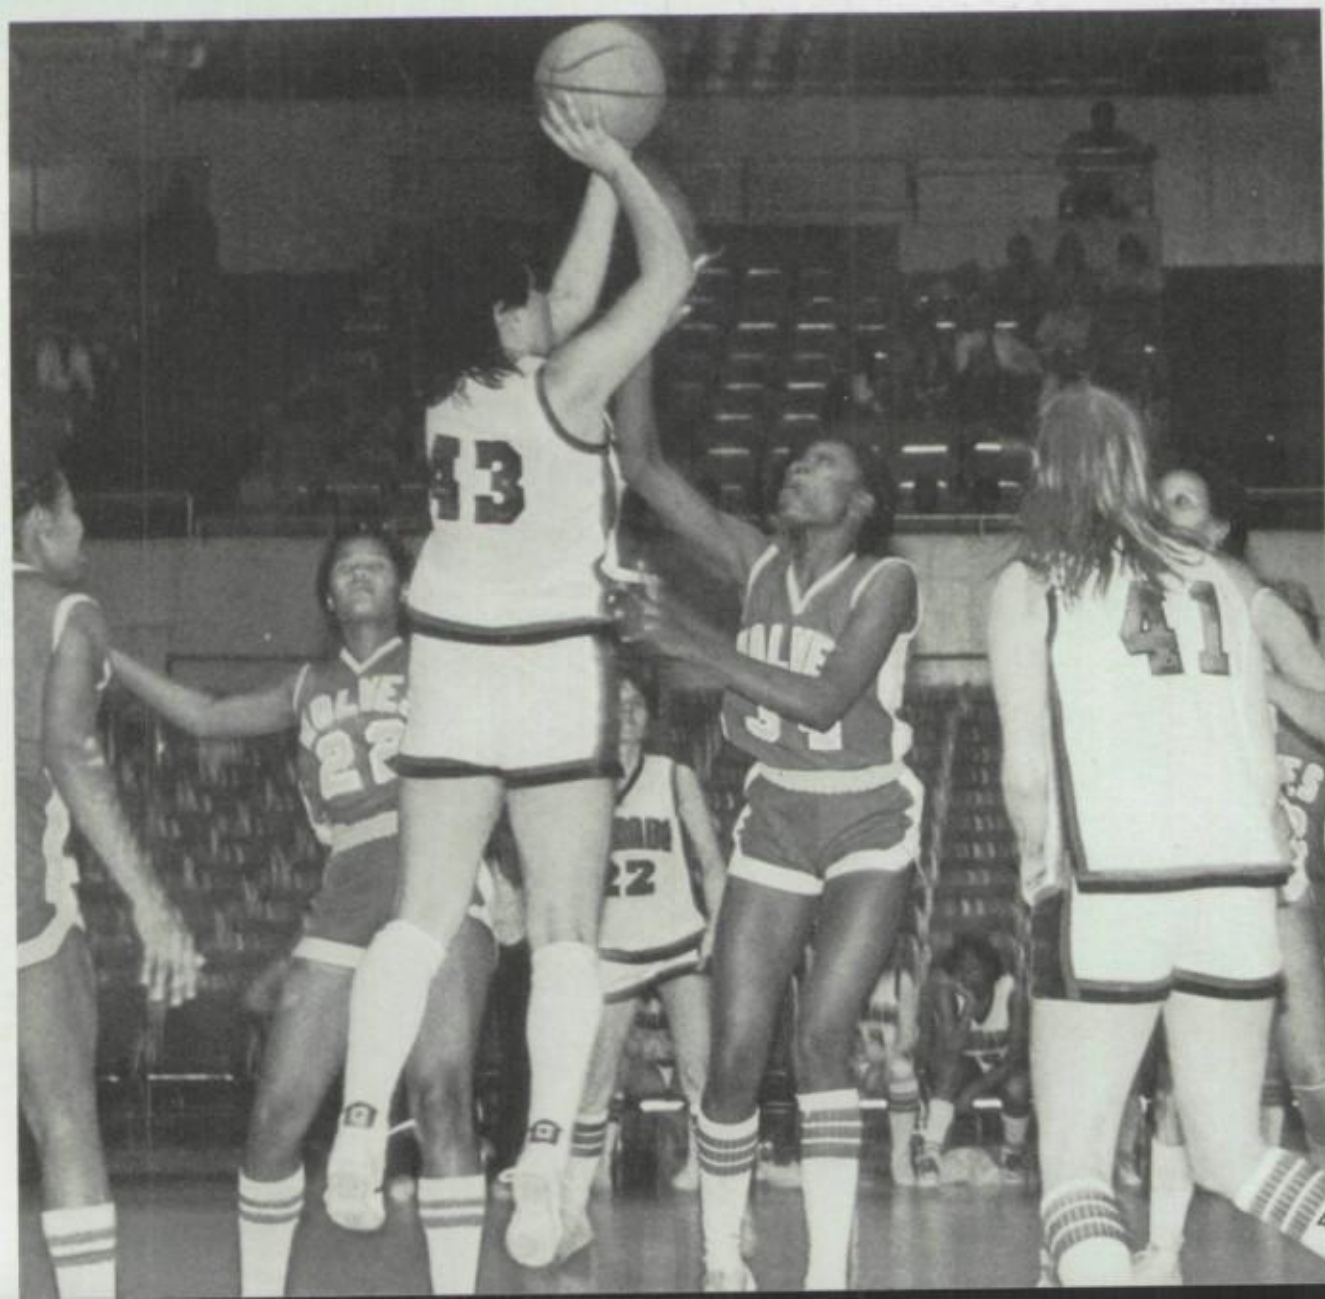

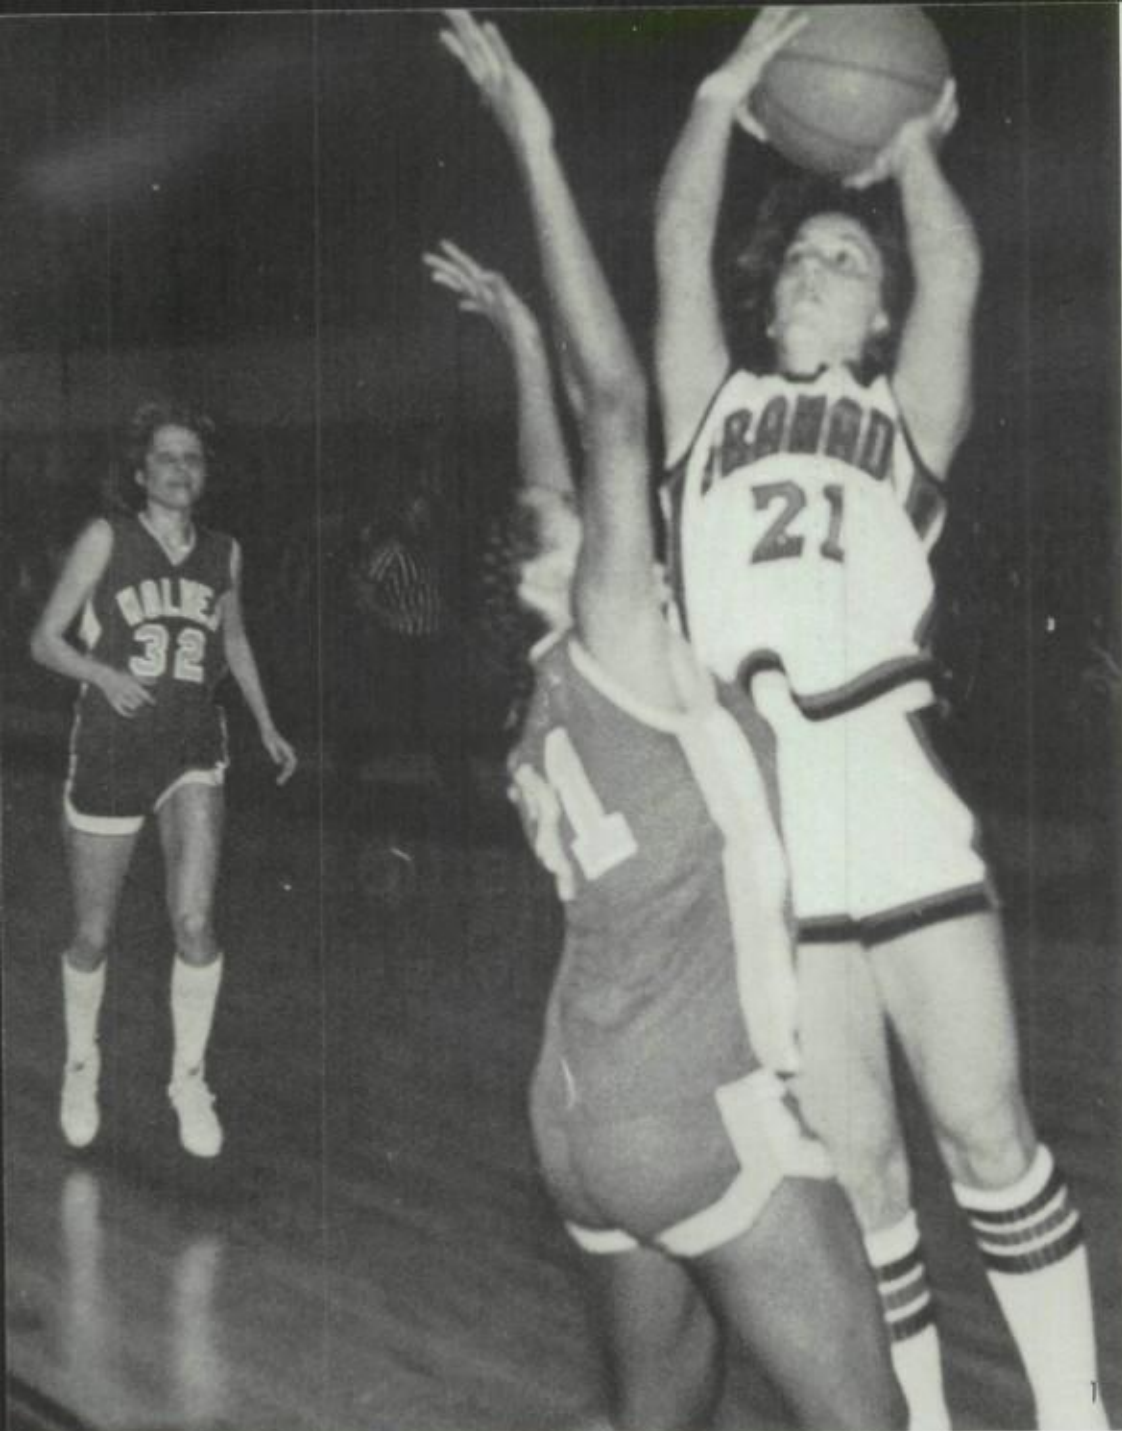

Mardi-Gras

Fun-Filled Day Is Successful

Granada Hills High School held their first Mardi-Gras this year on Saturday, February 26. People from all over the city came to the schools parking lot to play games, eat food, and listen to the rock music of Roma. All in all, it was a very successful event with many booths, sponsored by various organizations.

1. Miss Kemp attempts to hit the target on the dunking booth as spectators watch. 2. Students enjoying themselves at the Mardi-Gras. 3. A student tries her luck at the student council basketball booth. 4. Hand painting was another one of the booths.

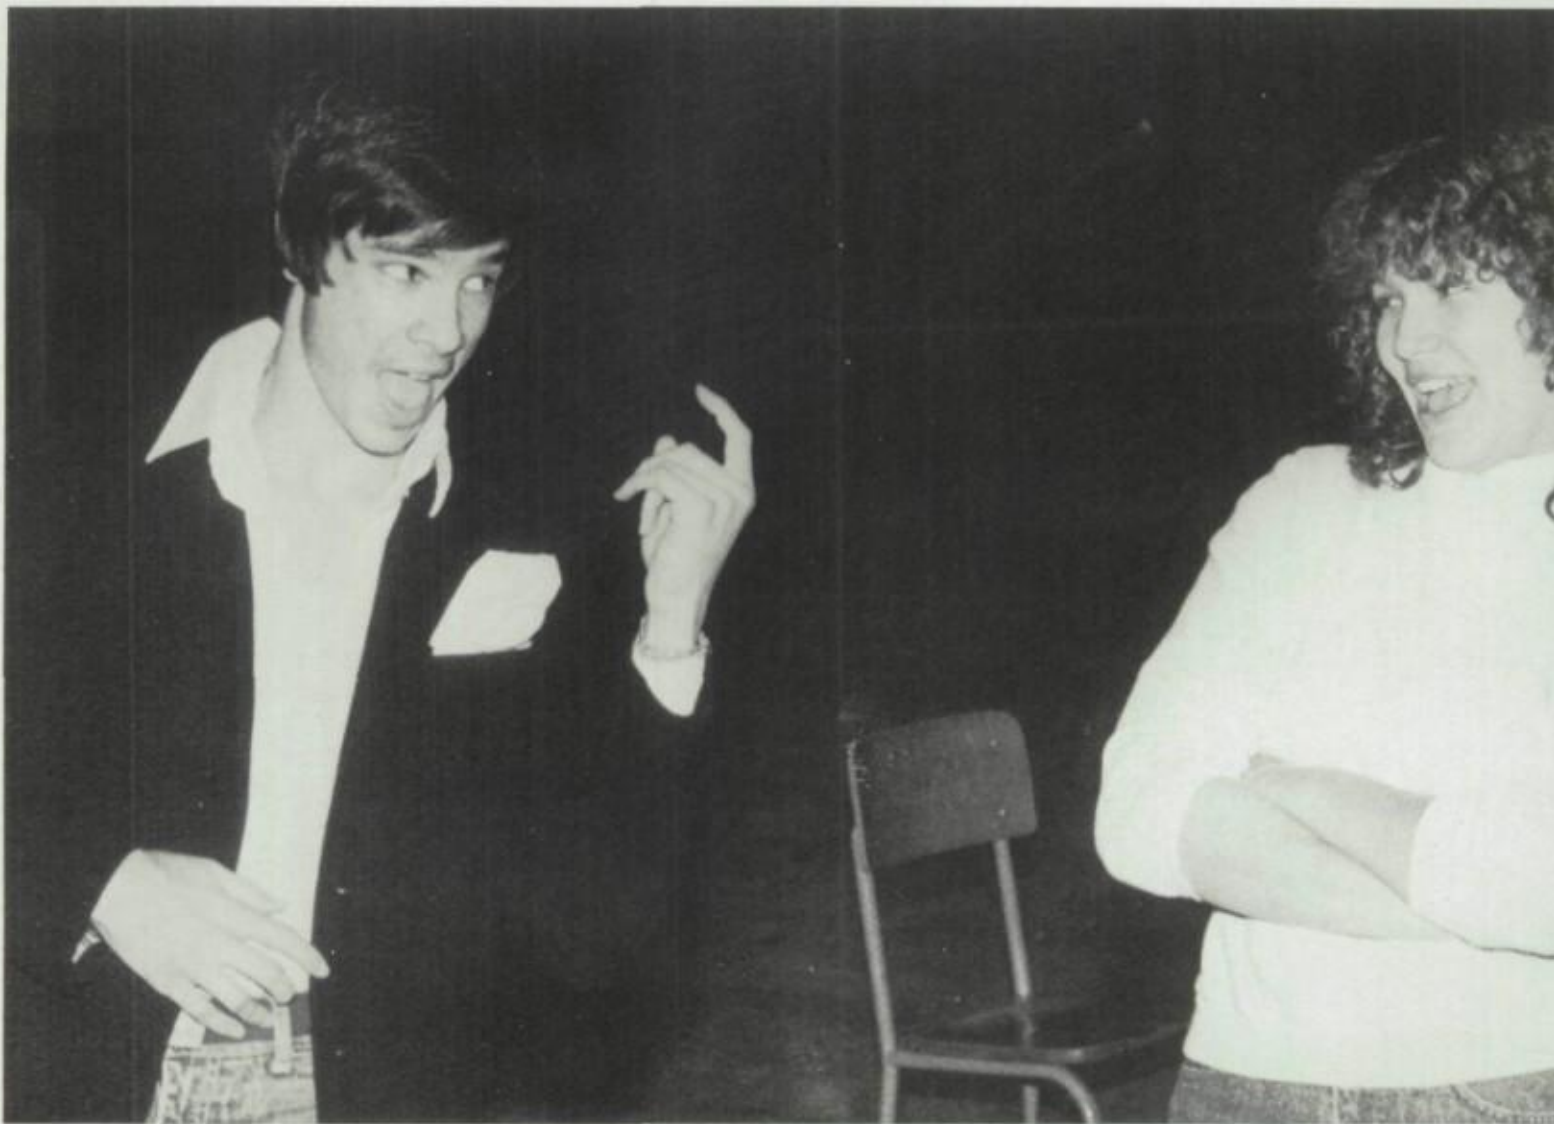

City Championship

Girls Are City Champs

The girls varsity basketball team won the city championships this year. They defeated the Van Nuys Wolves to win the title. It was a close game with the lead changing hands many times, but Granada pulled it out with a final score of 56-50.

Kelly Park lead the team in scoring and in rebounding. Barbara Jordon, Donna Mobilia, and Bridgett Blahut also were key players in the teams victory.

1. Stephanie Shannon shoots over Van Nuys player. 2. Team congratulates each other. 3. Mrs. Gunny gives the team some championship advice. 4. Kelly Park fights the Wolves for a shot. 5. Bridgett Blahut puts the ball up as Barbara Jordan and Kelly Park look on.

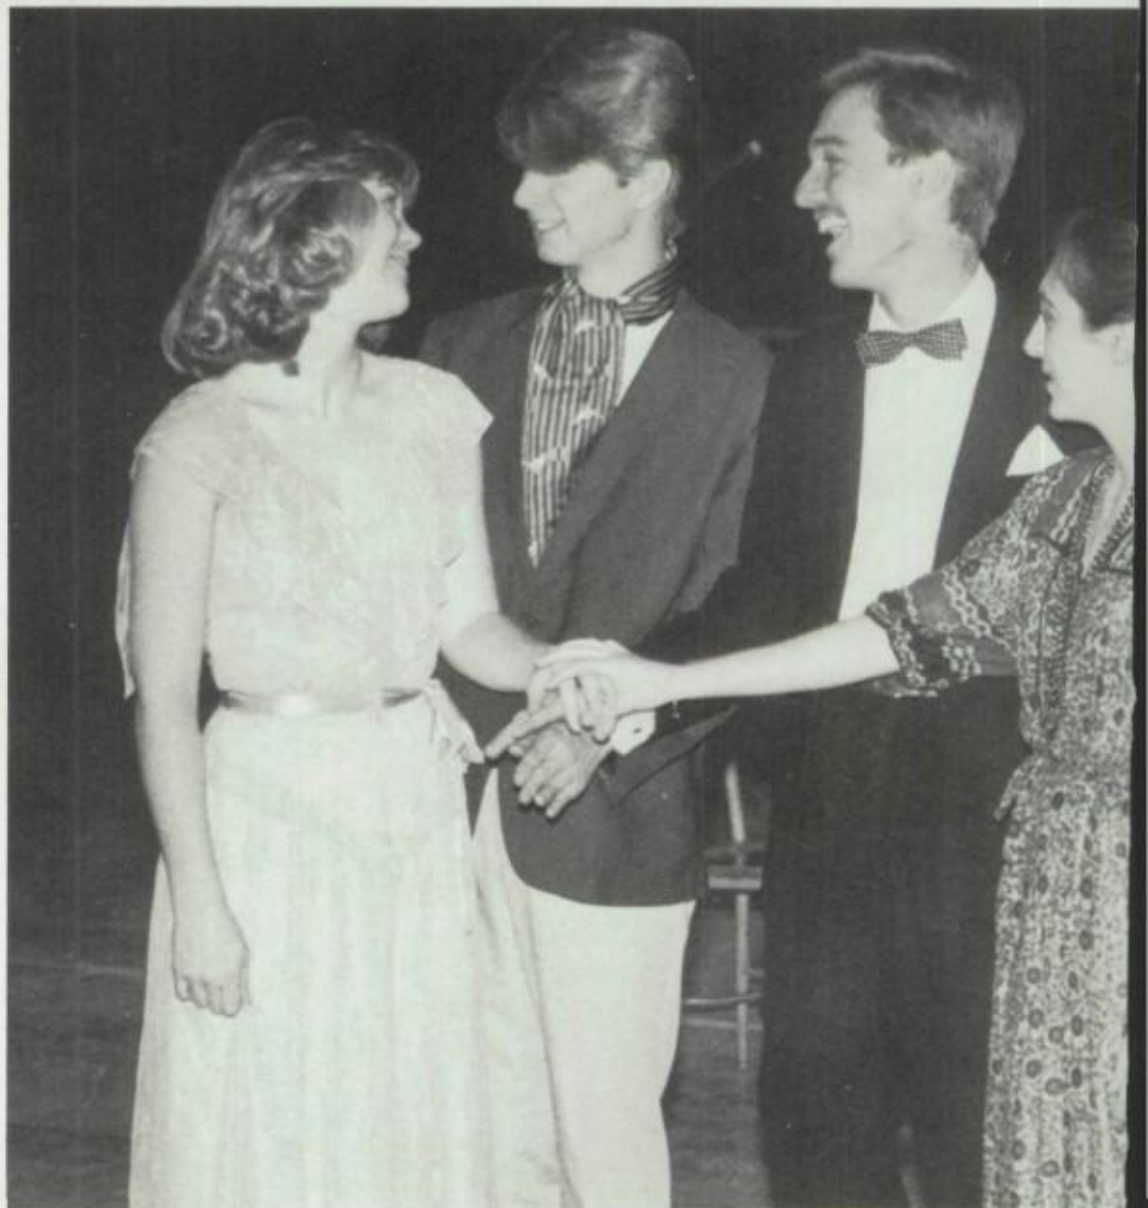

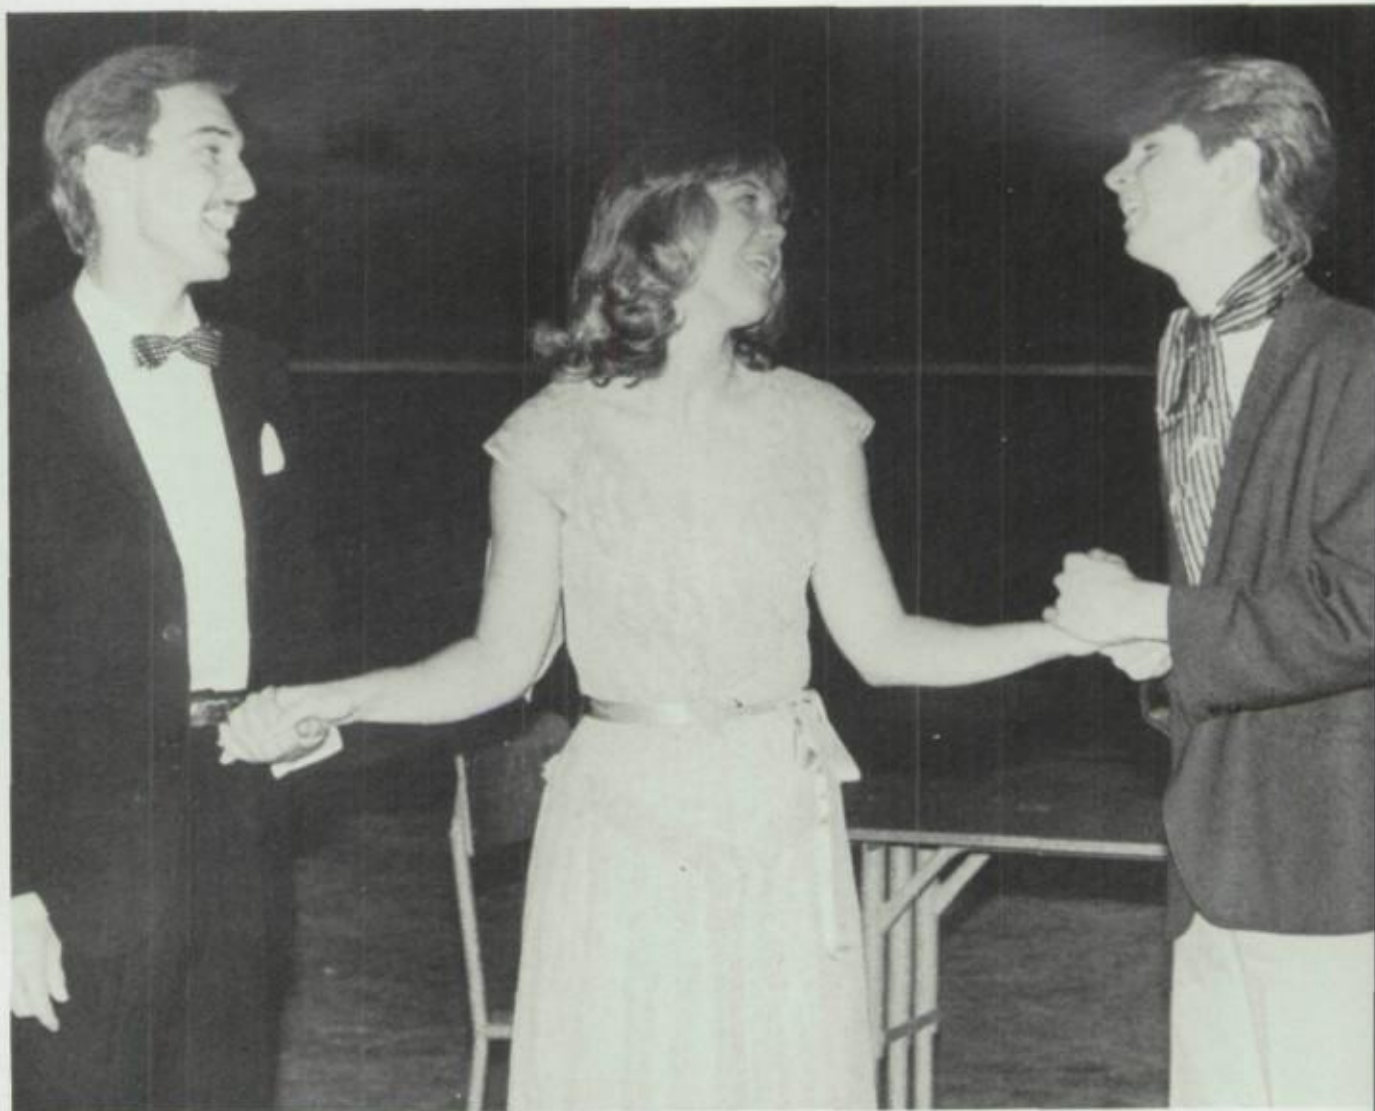

Spring Play

Play Lights Up Granada

The spring play this year was Light Up The Sky by Moss Hart. The comedy is about a group of people who go to Boston to perform a trial run of a play before going on to Broadway. The performers think it is a flop and a waste of their money, but the critics end up liking it. Star performers include Alisa DeCresent, David Searcy, Sean Stamm, Christina Coe, Linda Coler, Jennifer Klein, Dani Brown, Carol Cyr, Liz Yowell, and Scott Mingus. The show ran from May 18 - 21.

Accompanying pictures were taken during a rehearsal.

Comprehensive Arts Assembly

Ensemble Performs Oriental Music

The internationally known Elisabeth Waldo Ensemble performed several selections of ethnic music and a dance at Granada March 16, in Highlander Hall. The six member band played ethnic music from the Orient with such instruments as the spanish guitar, mandolin, pipa, sola, shing, and drums, while Elisabeth Waldo played the chinese violin. It all came to be an exquisite experience.

Spring Musical

'Sound of Music' Highlights Spring

The spring musical this year was The Sound of Music. It is the well known story centered around a large family and their governess, Maria, in Germany during World War II.

The performers included Marta Cobarrubias, Kevin Stage, Jeff Becher, Judi Oliphant, and Randy Dern. The seven children were played by Judy O'Neill, David Salper, Nancy Greenwald, Mark Van Valkenburgh, Valerie McCain, Susie Gross, and Rebecca Marroudis. Dear Jeffrey -
 Out of all the guys in the world you are the sweetest, greatest, outtest, smartest and crapest. no really, i am truly going to miss you. even though i have only known you for 3 years i feel that we have grown to be very close.
 You truly are someone very special to me and although we don't spend much time together outside of school i think about my pal a lot. you have always had a way of making me laugh at the worst possible situations (like being hungry) i'll really miss it but expect me to call you at 3:00 in the morning crying, i know you'll cheer me up.
 anyways- you know i love you dearly and i promise to write you and danny. i'm not leaving though til i get my veal scallopini!!! i love you Pony

To Jeffrey,
 I don't know, really, what words to say to express my pure & deep affection for you. I'm really glad we got a chance to know you in council and I can also say that it was a true experience.
 You are the ^{best} best joke teller I next to Steve & that I know and no matter how bad a mood
 I happened to be in you always managed to make me smile. Thanks for being a friend to me and please keep in touch with me and don't forget to write and call. When you become a famous director & producer remember my great talent in acting. You'd better!! Love Always,
 "939-6083" "83" The Complains

you are such a sweetie. I've known you for 3 years now and I still think you're ~~the~~ the same great person I met 3 years ago. Remember our wonderful Cont. Comp. class w/ Schwartz? What fun. Council has been fun too - although you seemed to be mysteriously absent when you had Tommy's cravings. Well, you'll just have to bring me with you next time. Just call 368-7536. Good luck always, and I truly hope to see you soon! KIT!

Love always, Stephane

Senior Luncheon

The annual semi-formal senior luncheon was held at the Sportsmans Lodge on May 4, 1983. There, the senior poll awards were announced. Everybody had a good time, and it was a very memorable occasion.

 nice eyes,
 Schneider!

Senior Prom

The Odessions wrapped up the year of 1983 by attending the long awaited senior prom on June 4, 1983. The Bonaventure Hotel, in Los Angeles, hosted Granada Hills students for an evening to remember forever.

feel that what we share is so rare. I respect and admire you so very much and know that you will become a very successful writer and director and producer. (you can do all 3!) I will wish you good luck even though you will not need it!

You are a true geek; my geek! We always have such a blast together! (If you would just stop telling jokes!)

Well, sweetie, I hope that in 20 years no matter where you or I am, (sorry, bad grammar) you can pick up this yearbook

"Excuse me Jeff, could you tell me what all that red stuff is on your shorts? What? it's a cherry slushie? Well, that's just great!!"

Dear Jeff, We've come a long way! I can't believe that in such a short time you have become one of the most important persons in my life. I remember when I used to think that you hated me! Council was so much fun! Remember counting all the Ephebian ballots? Or what about all our talks about Steve Levine. (He grosses me out!) Also Steve Weitzman. So, we have been through a lot together. I will never forget "Holy cow" when we didn't have enough $. I was so embarrassed! Then when we played Basketball. "I demand a rematch!" Then "Psycho II". then you know. (Ha.) (Nice - 5:30 am!) Also, Grad Nite, Josephina's, Jaws(!), Stuntman (you should be so proud, I finally watched it) and lots, lots more! But besides just doing things I love the times we spend talking. I have learned so many new things from you. I have never felt so strongly towards anyone as I do for you. No matter what happens - I will always love you, for you are my first "true" love. You give me things that no one else does and I

I love you Jeff, more than anything.

Love always,

Jeff
Thanks, alot for making my down year memorable

Dear Jeffrey,

This year has certainly been eventful. Jesus Schnei I don't know where to begin. Our friendship certainly means more to me than every Twilight Zone episode. Your cynical humor amazed me. You bring out the intellectual in everybody. Long live the "Bucks".
